DIWALI CELEBRATIONS (06th November 2018, Tuesday)

“From darkness to the light that empowers us to commit ourselves to good deeds, that which brings us closer to divinity; lights illuminate every corner of India during Diwali and the scent of incense sticks hung in the air, mingled with the sounds of fire-crackers, joy, togetherness and hope.”

The celebration of Diwali, ‘The festival of lights’ came alive at Samalkha Group of Institutions, Samalkha on 6th of November 2018 when the whole college wore a festive look with Diyas and lanterns adorning the corridors and the campus in bright colors. The rangoli done by students on the day added the perfect setting to the festivity.

Chairman Sir, Director Sir and Member Executive lit the lamp to begin the celebration on the auspicious occasion. The ‘Diwali Pujan’ brought out the essence of the festival-celebration of life and goodness.

Students talked about the significance of the festival - how good always conquered the evil and also about why and how Diwali is celebrated across India. Besides sensitizing students to the ill-effects of crackers, they also shared the guidelines on being safe while bursting them.

The students showcased the spirit of Diwali through mesmerizing performances. The celebration concluded with Chairman Sir giving away the message of a clean, peaceful and a bright Diwali.

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATIONS (14th November 2018, Wednesday)

“We were all children once. We all share the desire for the wellbeing of our children, which has always been and will continue to be the most universally cherished aspiration of humankind.”

14th November- a day marking childhood. This day as we know marks the birthday of Pandit Nehru and his love for children.

Children's day focus on children and their enjoyment. This day is commemorated with immense joy, enthusiasm and magnificence. In Samalkha Group of Institutions, it was a fun-filled day for the students. The students were taken by surprise as many events and activities were scheduled for the day. The entire campus was filled with enthusiasm which echoed in the air throughout the day.

All the constituent faculties of SGI organized varied events to celebrate Children's Day and the students participated actively to make the day a success. The day witnessed a host of events such as singing, dancing, Quiz competition, to name a few.

Thereafter, Cake cutting ceremony and distribution of snacks & sweets to the students marked the end of the programme. Last but not the least, all the students acknowledged the efforts of their teachers and thanked them for making them feel special in such beautiful ways.
